

Join us for a celebration of

The curiouser and curiouser adventures of

ALICE in Wonderland

Ballet

N E B R A S K A

On Sunday, April 14, from 2 to 4 pm, Ballet Nebraska is your host for a visit to the enchantingly odd fantasy world of the Mad Hatter's Tea Party at Omaha's Botanical Center — Lauritzen Gardens, 100 Bancroft St.

This benefit will feature face painters, magicians, balloon artistry, crafts, food and fun! Enjoy a delightful afternoon with costumed characters from Alice in Wonderland, who will perform short excerpts from the ballet. See the joy on your children's faces as they have pictures taken with the dancers.

So, put on your white gloves, wind your pocketwatch, and get ready to pop down the rabbit hole with Victorian literature's most adventurous seven-and-a-half-year-old heroine and her friends! Don't be late for this very important date!

You must have a pre-paid reservation, and seating is limited.

A suggestion:

Your ticket includes admission to the beautiful Lauritzen Gardens!

You might enjoy visiting the Victorian Garden, the Rose Garden, and other delightful spots.

And if you see me, be sure to say hello!

Cordially,

The White Rabbit
